EXHIBIT O

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF DELAWARE

WAYNE VAN SCOY,

Plaintiff and Counterclaim-Defendant,

v.

VAN SCOY DIAMOND MINE OF DELAWARE, INC., a Delaware Corporation
KURT VAN SCOY, and DONNA VAN SCOY,

Defendants and Counterclaim-Plaintiff.

Case No. 05-108 (KAJ)

DEFENDANTS' AMENDED AND SUPPLEMENTAL RESPONSES TO PLAINTIFF'S FIRST SET OF INTERROGATORIES

Pursuant to Rule 33 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure Defendants Van Scoy Diamond Mine of Delaware, Inc., Kurt Van Scoy, and Donna Van Scoy hereby supplement their 7 June 2005 responses to plaintiff's first set of interrogatories.

GENERAL OBJECTIONS

1. Plaintiff's first set of interrogatories is defective and, hence, invalid, as it fails to comply with Fed. R. Civ. P. 33.
2. Defendants object to each and every interrogatory in its entirety to the extent it seeks information that is not relevant to the subject matter of this litigation and is not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.
3. Defendants object to each and every interrogatory to the extent it calls for information that could have been obtained more efficiently by other means of discovery.

4. Defendants object to each and every interrogatory to the extent it can be answered by the production of business records.

5. Defendants object to each and every interrogatory to the extent it seeks disclosure of documents or information containing privileged communications, attorney work-product, client. work-product, or trial preparation material, on the grounds that such discovery is not permissible under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. None of Defendants' specific responses shall be construed to mean that Defendants intend to provide privileged or work-product documents or information in the absence of an intentional waiver. Any inadvertent disclosure of privileged documents or information or work-product shall not constitute a waiver of an otherwise valid claim of privilege, and any failure to assert a privilege or other protection as to certain documents or information shall not be deemed to constitute a waiver of the privilege or other protection as to any other documents or information so protected.

6. Defendants object to each and every interrogatory to the extent that it is vague, ambiguous, overbroad, vexatious, unduly burdensome or seeks information not relevant to the subject matter involved in the pending action nor reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

7. Defendants object to each and every interrogatory to the extent that it seeks information or documents that are confidential and/or proprietary business and financial information.

8. Defendants object to each and every interrogatory to the extent that it seeks documents or information protected by any confidentiality obligation owed to a third party.

9. Defendants note that inasmuch as Defendants' discovery and investigation is continuing, Defendants' responses to contention interrogatories are limited by the information available to date and are provided without prejudice to Defendants' right to amend or supplement the responses to those interrogatories.

10. Defendants objects to Plaintiff's definitions and instructions as improperly attempting to impose burdens and obligations upon Defendants beyond the requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

11. Defendants assert each of the general objections set forth above to each of the interrogatories. By setting forth specific objections, Defendants do not intend to limit or restrict the general objections contained in this response. To the extent Defendants provide information in response to a specific request to which objection has been raised, Defendants reserve the right to maintain such objections with respect to any additional information and such objections are not waived by the furnishing of documents or information.

12. Defendants expressly reserve the right to supplement and/or amend these responses should additional documents or information become available.

SPECIFIC ANSWERS AND/OR OBJECTIONS

Subject to each of the foregoing objections, each of which is interposed as to each of the following interrogatories as if each such objection was set forth at length therein, Defendants respond to Plaintiff's first set of interrogatories as follows:

1. State the name of each individual who answered or provided information used to answer each of these Interrogatories on behalf of Defendants, the specific Interrogatory to which each of the identified individuals provided assistance in answering, and the job title or corporate capacity/affiliation of each identified individual.

Defendants' response:

Kurt Van Scoy; all interrogatories and subparts thereof; owner of defendant Van Scoy Diamond Mine of Delaware, Inc.

2. With respect to Defendants' First Affirmative Defense alleging that "Plaintiff has failed to state a claim upon which relief can be granted,"

i) state all of Defendants' contentions for why Plaintiff has allegedly failed to state a claim upon which relief can be granted,

ii) state all facts,

iii) identify all documents and things in support thereof and

iv) identify the persons most knowledgeable with respect to such facts, documents and things.

Defendants' amended response:

i) Defendants object to this contention interrogatory as being premature on the grounds that Defendants' trial plans are incomplete. Subject to and without prejudice to the foregoing objection, plaintiff's claims are based on a mark which is incapable of functioning as a trademark and/or has lost its trademark significance; plaintiff's claims are additionally barred by various equitable doctrines. Additionally, Defendants Kurt Van Scoy and Donna Van Scoy have not used the mark at issue.

ii) Defendants object to this contention interrogatory as being premature on the grounds that Defendants' trial plans are incomplete. Subject to and without prejudice to the foregoing objection, the mark plaintiff seeks to assert against defendants has been used by third parties without supervision or control or authorization by plaintiff, thereby resulting in lost of trademark significance for the mark plaintiff seeks to assert.

iii) Defendants object to this contention interrogatory as being premature on the grounds that Defendants' trial plans are incomplete. Subject to and without prejudice to the foregoing objection. See documents D000038; D000039 and D000044 through D000057.

iv) Kurt Van Scoy

Defendants' Supplemental Response:

i) Defendants withdraw the objection to this contention interrogatory as being premature, as stated above.

ii) Defendants withdraw the objection to this contention interrogatory as being premature, as stated above.

iii) Defendants withdraw the objection to this contention interrogatory as being premature, as stated above.

iv) See above.

3. With respect to Defendants' Second Affirmative Defense alleging that "Plaintiff's claims are barred by the relevant statute of limitations"

i) state all of Defendants' contentions for why Plaintiff's claims are barred by the relevant statute of limitations,

ii) state all facts,

iii) identify all documents and things in support thereof and

iv) identify the persons most knowledgeable with respect to such facts, documents and things.

Defendants' response:

- i) Defendants object to this contention interrogatory as being premature on the grounds that Defendants' trial plans are incomplete. Subject to and without prejudice to the foregoing objection, the relevant statute of limitations has expired. Additionally, Defendants Kurt Van Scoy and Donna Van Scoy have not used the mark at issue.
- ii) Defendants object to this contention interrogatory as being premature on the grounds that Defendants' trial plans are incomplete. Subject to and without prejudice to the foregoing objection, Defendant Van Scoy Diamond Mine of Delaware, Inc. began use of the mark at issue longer ago than the relevant statute of limitations. Defendants Kurt Van Scoy and Donna Van Scoy have not used the mark at issue.
- iii) See the response to plaintiff's requests for production of documents numbers 10, 11 and 13.
- iv) Kurt Van Scoy

Defendants' Supplemental Response:

- i) Defendants withdraw the objection to this contention interrogatory as being premature, as stated above.
- ii) Defendants withdraw the objection to this contention interrogatory as being premature, as stated above.
- iii) See above.
- iv) See above.

4. With respect to Defendants' Third Affirmative Defense alleging that "Plaintiff's claims for recovery of property and damages are barred by Plaintiffs failure to give notice of registration pursuant to 15 USC 1111,”

- i) state all of Defendants’ contentions for why Plaintiffs claims for recovery of property are allegedly barred by the Plaintiffs failure to give notice of registration pursuant to 15 USC 1111,
- ii) state all facts,
- iii) identify all documents and things in support thereof and
- iv) identify the persons most knowledgeable with respect to such facts, documents and things.

Defendant’s amended response:

- ii) Defendants object to this interrogatory as being a contention interrogatory when defendants’ trial plans are incomplete. Defendants will supplement and respond to this interrogatory once defendants’ trial plans are more complete.
- iii) Defendants object to this interrogatory as being a contention interrogatory when defendants’ trial plans are incomplete. Defendants will supplement and respond to this interrogatory once defendants’ trial plans are more complete. Subject to the foregoing objection, none at this time.

iv) Kurt Van Scoy

Defendants’ Supplemental Response:

- i) Defendants withdraw the objection to this contention interrogatory as being premature, as stated above. Failure of a registrant to give notice that the mark is registered by displaying where the mark the words "Registered in U.S. Patent and Trademark Office" or "Reg. U.S. Pat. & Tm. Off" or the letter "R" enclosed with a circle, no profits or damages shall be recovered under the provisions of U.S.C. 1051 et seq. unless the defendant had actual notice of the registration.

ii) Defendants withdraw the objection to this contention interrogatory as being premature, as stated above. Defendants lacked actual notice of the registration.

iii) Defendants withdraw the objection to this contention interrogatory as being premature, as stated above. Defendants have no documents responsive to this interrogatory.

iv) See above.

5. With respect to Defendants' Fourth Affirmative Defense alleging that Plaintiff's mark "Van Scoy Diamond Mine" "is generic, misdescriptive or otherwise has no significance as a source indicator and hence can not function as a trademark,"

- i) state all of Defendants' contentions for why Plaintiff's mark is allegedly generic, misdescriptive, or otherwise has no significance as a source indicator and hence can not function as a trademark,
- ii) state all facts,
- iii) identify all documents and things in support thereof and
- iv) identify the persons most knowledgeable with respect to such facts, documents and things.

Defendants' response:

- i) Defendants object to this interrogatory as being a contention interrogatory when defendants' trial plans are incomplete. Defendants will supplement and respond to this interrogatory once defendants' trial plans are more complete. Subject to the foregoing objection, use of the mark at issue by third parties without licensure or control by plaintiff has resulted in the mark at issue becoming generic, being misdescriptive, and losing any significance it might ever have had as a source indicator and hence cannot function as a trademark.

ii) Defendants object to this interrogatory as being a contention interrogatory when defendants' trial plans are incomplete. Defendants will supplement and respond to this interrogatory once defendants' trial plans are more complete. Subject to the foregoing objection, use of the mark at issue by third parties without licensure or control by plaintiff has resulted in the mark at issue becoming generic, being misdescriptive, and losing any significance it might ever have had as a source indicator and hence cannot function as a trademark.

iii) Defendants object to this interrogatory as being a contention interrogatory when defendants' trial plans are incomplete. Defendants will supplement and respond to this interrogatory once defendants' trial plans are more complete. Subject to the foregoing objection, use of the mark at issue by third parties without licensure or control by plaintiff has resulted in the mark at issue becoming generic, being misdescriptive, and losing any significance it might ever have had as a source indicator and hence cannot function as a trademark, see documents D000038; D000039 and D000044 through D000057.

iv) Kurt Van Scoy

Defendants' Supplemental Response:

iii) Defendants withdraw the objection to this contention interrogatory as being premature, as stated above.

iv) See above.

6. With respect to Defendants' Fifth Affirmative Defense alleging that Plaintiff's mark "Van Scoy Diamond Mine" "is not famous and has not acquired secondary meaning,"

i) state all of Defendants' contentions for why Plaintiff's mark "Van Scoy Diamond Mine" is allegedly not famous and has not acquired secondary meaning,

ii) state all facts,

iii) identify all documents and things in support thereof and

iv) identify the persons most knowledgeable with respect to such facts, documents and things.

Defendants' response:

i) Defendants object to this interrogatory as being a contention interrogatory when defendants' trial plans are incomplete. Defendants will supplement and respond to this interrogatory once defendants' trial plans are more complete. Subject to the foregoing objection, use of the mark at issue by third parties without licensure or control by plaintiff has resulted in the mark at issue becoming generic, being misdescriptive, and losing any significance it might ever have had as a source indicator and hence cannot function as a trademark. The mark at issue simply has not had sufficient advertising and promotional efforts or expenditure to rise to the level of a famous mark and lack of recognition of the mark by the public has resulted in an absence of secondary meaning for the mark at issue.

ii) Defendants object to this interrogatory as being a contention interrogatory when defendants' trial plans are incomplete. Defendants will supplement and respond to this interrogatory once defendants' trial plans are more complete. Subject to the foregoing objection, use of the mark at issue by third parties without licensure or control by plaintiff has resulted in the mark at issue becoming generic, being misdescriptive, and losing any significance it might ever have had as a source indicator and hence cannot function as a trademark. The mark at issue simply has not had sufficient advertising and promotional efforts or expenditure to rise to the level of a famous mark and lack of recognition of the mark by the public has resulted in an absence of secondary meaning for the mark at issue.

iii) Defendants object to this interrogatory as being a contention interrogatory when defendants' trial plans are incomplete. Defendants will supplement and respond to this interrogatory once defendants' trial plans are more complete; see documents D000038; D000039 and D000044 through D000057.

iv) Kurt Van Scoy

Defendants' Supplemental Response:

i) Defendants withdraw the objection to this contention interrogatory as being premature, as stated above.

ii) Defendants withdraw the objection to this contention interrogatory as being premature, as stated above.

iii) Defendants withdraw the objection to this contention interrogatory as being premature, as stated above.

iv) See above.

7. With respect to Defendants' Sixth Affirmative Defense alleging that Plaintiff's mark "Van Scoy Diamond Mine" "is generic or merely descriptive and thus not capable of protection,"

- i) state all of Defendants' contentions for why Plaintiff's mark "Van Scoy Diamond Mine" is allegedly generic or merely descriptive and thus not capable of protection,
- ii) state all facts,
- iii) identify all documents and things in support thereof and
- iv) identify the persons most knowledgeable with respect to such facts, documents and things.

Defendants' response:

- i) Defendants object to this interrogatory as being a contention interrogatory when defendants' trial plans are incomplete. Defendants will supplement and respond to this interrogatory once defendants' trial plans are more complete. Use of the mark at issue by numerous third parties without licensure or control by plaintiff has resulted in the mark becoming generic or merely descriptive and in event not capable of being protected.
- ii) Defendants object to this interrogatory as being a contention interrogatory when defendants' trial plans are incomplete. Defendants will supplement and respond to this interrogatory once defendants' trial plans are more complete. Use of the mark at issue by numerous third parties without licensure or control by plaintiff has resulted in the mark becoming generic or merely descriptive and in event not capable of being protected.

iii) Defendants object to this interrogatory as being a contention interrogatory when defendants' trial plans are incomplete. Defendants will supplement and respond to this interrogatory once defendants' trial plans are more complete; see documents D000038; D000039 and D000044 through D000057.

iv) Kurt Van Scoy

Defendants' Supplemental Response:

i) Defendants withdraw the objection to this contention interrogatory as being premature, as stated above.

ii) Defendants withdraw the objection to this contention interrogatory as being premature, as stated above.

iii) Defendants withdraw the objection to this contention interrogatory as being premature, as stated above.

iv) Kurt Van Scoy.

8. With respect to Defendants' Seventh Affirmative Defense alleging that "Plaintiff claims are barred by the doctrine of laches,"

i) state all of Defendants' contentions for why Plaintiffs claims are allegedly barred by the doctrine of laches,

ii) state all facts,

- iii) identify all documents and things in support thereof and
- iv) identify the persons most knowledgeable with respect to such facts, documents and things.

Defendants' response:

- i) Defendants object to this interrogatory as being a contention interrogatory when defendants' trial plans are incomplete. Defendants will supplement and respond to this interrogatory once defendants' trial plans are more complete. Defendants' commenced use of the mark at issue sufficiently long ago with plaintiff's knowledge that the period for laches as long since expired.
- ii) Defendants object to this interrogatory as being a contention interrogatory when defendants' trial plans are incomplete. Defendants will supplement and respond to this interrogatory once defendants' trial plans are more complete. Defendants' commence use of the mark at issue sufficiently long ago with plaintiff's knowledge that the period for laches as long since expired.
- iii) Defendants object to this interrogatory as being a contention interrogatory when defendants' trial plans are incomplete. Defendants will supplement and respond to this interrogatory once defendants' trial plans are more complete. See the response to plaintiff's request for production of documents number 11.

Defendants' response:

i) Defendants object to this interrogatory as being a contention interrogatory when defendants' trial plans are incomplete. Defendants will supplement and respond to this interrogatory once defendants' trial plans are more complete. Plaintiff has known of Defendants' use of the mark at issue for many, many years and has not, until November 2004, objected in any manner to Defendants' use of the mark at issue. Defendants' have relied on plaintiff's inaction and silent respecting Defendants' ongoing use of the mark at issue.

ii) Defendants object to this interrogatory as being a contention interrogatory when defendants' trial plans are incomplete. Defendants will supplement and respond to this interrogatory once defendants' trial plans are more complete. Plaintiff has known of Defendants' use of the mark at issue for many, many years and has not, until November 2004, objected in any manner to Defendants' use of the mark at issue. Defendants' have relied on plaintiff's inaction and silence respecting Defendants' ongoing use of the mark at issue. Defendants' response:

- i) Defendants object to this interrogatory as being a contention interrogatory when defendants' trial plans are incomplete. Defendants will supplement and respond to this interrogatory once defendants' trial plans are more complete. Plaintiff has known of Defendants' use of the mark at issue for many, many years and has, until November 2004, acquiesced to Defendants' use of the mark at issue. Defendants' have relied on plaintiff's inaction and silence respecting Defendants' ongoing use of the mark at issue.
